BUTLER COUNTY TOURISM'S RESTAURANT WEEK RETURNS

More Than 30 Restaurants Participating in County-Wide Event, March 20-26

BUTLER COUNTY, PA (March 2, 2023) – Butler County Tourism & Convention Bureau announces Restaurant Week will return March 20-26. More than 30 restaurants in Butler County are participating and some will feature delicious signature dishes while others will develop special menu items throughout the week.

Butler County Tourism's Restaurant Week highlights many establishments for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. You'll discover unique options at cafes, diners, restaurants, and even breweries! Enjoy different mouthwatering dishes such as Bison Pot Roast from The Twisted Oak Tavern at the Slippery Rock Golf Club & Events Center and from a variety of cuisines like Mexican, Italian, Asian, Thai, Indian, American, and more!

Participating restaurants include: 11th Frame Bar and Grille, the Beacon Hotel, Butler Brew Works, Cannella Cafe, Downtown Bagel House, Mama Rosa's Restaurant, Mama Rosa's Sauce Kitchen, Missing Links Brewery, Monroe Restaurant & Lounge, Natili North Carryout, Totalus, DiBella's Subs, Domenico's Ristorante, Firebirds Wood Fired Grill, Jason's Deli, The Eatery at American Natural, The Turn Club, Union Brothers Brewing, Nosh & Curd, Tepache Mexican Kitchen and Bar, American Natural, Pizza Joe's Portersville, Hotel Saxonburg, Kiki & Lolo's, North Country Brew Pub, Rooster's Coffee Bar, Twisted Oak Tavern at the Slippery Rock Golf Club, The Eatery at American Natural, Burgh'ers Brewing, General Shu's, ShuBrew, Sips & Sweets.

"Our first Restaurant Week was in 2021 and last year many restaurants were still in pandemic recovery mode," said Jack Cohen, President of Butler County Tourism & Convention Bureau. "This event helps promote Butler County's outstanding variety of restaurants and all their savory and delicious items."
