

Sporting Venues

With our prime location and abundance of versatile sporting venues, Butler County PA has become a premier sports destination. The Butler County Sports Commission features a top-notch advisory panel of professional athletes, coaches, athletic directors, trainers, sports medicine authorities and the leaders in sports from our region. We have a dedicated team to guide clients through the planning process and offer a variety of services at no additional cost including site selection consultations, tourism ambassadors, transportation coordination and so much more! Host your next event or meeting where tourism impacts the county in more ways than one.
